3. Election process

3.1 The three BEC Athletes Commission Members are elected the following way.

3.2 Three players are elected for a four-year term by the active European players at the time of the European Men's & Women's Team Championships played in the year of the Olympic Games.

3.3 At least one male and one female Commission Member must be elected. In the event that there is only one male or one female player nominated, that male or that female shall automatically be elected to the BEC Athletes Commission. Subject to 3.4 below, in all other cases, the male player with the highest number of votes and the female player with the highest number of votes shall be elected to the BEC Athletes Commission with the final member being the player, male or female, who achieves the highest number of votes amongst the remaining nominees.

3.4 Only one player from a Member Association can serve at any one time on the BEC Athletes Commission. In the event that more than one player is nominated from the same Member Association, the player with the highest number of votes from that Member Association will be deemed to be that Member Association's representative for the purposes of determining the members of the BEC Athletes Commission in accordance with 3.3 above.

3.5 The process for the BEC Athletes Commission election shall be approved by the BEC General Secretary and published on the BEC website and social media at least two months prior to the election date. The process shall be made in accordance with the following structure:

- Date of election: Thursday of week 7 in the year of the Olympic Games
- Nominations for election to the BEC Athletes Commission must be made in writing by an Eligible Player or, in agreement with the Eligible Player, by an Eligible Player's Member Association on his or her behalf and sent directly to the BEC General Secretary so as to reach the Confederation not later than 4 weeks before the election date. Each nomination must be accompanied by a photograph and short biography of the Eligible Player and the reasons why that player seeks election to the BEC Athletes Commission.
- Eligible nominations will be sent to all Members, published on the BEC website and social media at least three weeks prior to the election date.
