

Appendix 4: Para-Badminton Kick Start Document

1. Administrators
 - a. Reach out to your National Paralympic Committee to inform about badminton being a Paralympic Sport.
 - b. Find para-badminton players – it can be from clubs, other para sport or rehabilitation centres.
 - c. Contact neighboring countries which already started para-badminton for regional camp or training sessions.
 - d. Conduct roadshow to introduce para-badminton to the community
 - e. Create a section about para-badminton on your website
2. Coaches
 - a. Participate in BEC/BWF course which are focused on para-badminton
 - b. Watch para-badminton videos on BEC's Youtube channel and BadmintonWorld.tv
 - c. Search for more players:
 - i. Current players who knows players with disabilities
 - ii. Introduce badminton to other para sport athletes
3. Players
 - a. Keep an eye on friends, family members or neighbours who might be interested to take up para-badminton
 - b. Current para-badminton players serve as ambassadors who can help promote our sport
4. Others
 - a. Technical Officials – BWF Technical Officials website
 - i. Find out possibilities to take part in BWF Para-Badminton International tournaments.
 - b. Classifiers – BWF Classifier website
 - i. Find out possibilities for BWF Classification Workshops and how to be BWF Classifiers for doctors, physiotherapists, etc.
5. Useful websites
 - a. BWF Para-Badminton Website
 - b. BEC Para-Badminton Website
 - c. European Paralympic Committee