1. About hosting Badminton Europe Events

The following will give an impression of the Badminton Europe Events Programme and what the possibilities and requirements are for a Member Association that wish to host one or more of these events.

European Championships

The European Championships are the most important activities of Badminton Europe – which officially will crown Europe’s best players and teams. The European Championships are organized and played in different age groups and categories – as individual events and as team events – all to be hosted by, and played in, one of Badminton Europe’s Member Associations.

All Member Associations can host

All of Badminton Europe’s 53 Member Associations have the opportunity of hosting a Badminton Europe event – allocation being made based on the submitted bid.

Hosting a Badminton Europe event will attract interest from all over the badminton world and put the respective city/country in the spotlight before and during the event, leaving behind a lasting legacy for the event organizers.

Member Associations can bid for an event at any time

Badminton Europe gives its Member Associations the opportunity to bid for, and get the rights to host, one of its events at any time it is of interest and convenience for the respective Member Association.

Decision

Shortly after the bid is submitted by the Member Association, they will be informed if they have been successful – no matter if the event is being held in 6 months, or in 6 years...

2. Event details and requirements

The following will give an impression of the expected terms and conditions for staging the various Badminton Europe events. It is furthermore outlined which body is responsible for organizing and financing each area.

3. Rights

Introduction

Prior to the staging of a Badminton Europe event agreement must be reached between Badminton Europe and a Member Association (Organizer) regarding the rights each party can exploit in relation to the event. The rights are initially owned exclusively by Badminton Europe and are made up of the:

- i) TV/Broadcast - rights and production*
- ii) Commercial rights*
- iii) Interactive rights*
- iv) Mobile rights*

Collectively these are known as the marketing rights to the event.

In negotiating with potential organizers regarding the organization of an event certain rights may be granted to the Organizer (ORG). The rights will be granted to an ORG based on competence, contacts, sales and marketing potential of the ORG and existing Badminton Europe commitments and strategies.

This part of the bidding document explains the details of the rights that typically can be exploited at Badminton Europe events. This part will also highlight which rights are restricted due to commitments Badminton Europe has with official providers.

TV/Broadcast - rights and production

For the European Championships Badminton Europe (BEC) requires ORG to provide a full television production of 1 court of the event in high definition 16:9 with two audio tracks (1. English full mix / 2. International sound) including provision of the continuous live clean signal uplinked to a designated satellite. The live clean signal must include international sound and English language commentary. The production must include integration of BEC designed graphics.

The ORG and the ORG's host broadcaster should provide all facilities reasonably necessary to allow for exploitation of the event television rights by international client broadcasters at the site of the tournament, including but not limited to: unilateral camera for in vision presentation, editing facilities, commentary position (for three commentators) and observer positions including phone line with the understanding that the international broadcasters will be charged no more than the published, current rate prices for the use of such facilities and personnel. The BEC Executive Producer shall supervise the ORG's host broadcaster's production of the World Feed. BEC has the final say of who shall be the director of the TV-production.

The domestic television rights (see below) can be granted to ORG if ORG is responsible for the television production. ORG can then use the domestic television rights to negotiate with potential host broadcasters to off-set the costs of the television production.

BEC shall retain the international broadcast rights and news access rights (see below) from the event at all times, and BEC shall be entitled to exploit these rights accordingly. ORG will retain the domestic television rights (see below) and shall be entitled to exploit these rights accordingly.

In case BEC decide to organize the television production then the domestic television rights will be retained by BEC.

"Domestic television rights" shall mean the exclusive right to distribute, broadcast, exhibit and reproduce the broadcast for exhibition on the following media including without limitation any form of television, cable, DBS, satellite, MMDS, SMATV, NVOD, Pay TV, Per-Per-View and radio and all theatric and non-theatric rights (excluding any fixed media such as DVD, CD-ROM, CDi, video). All closed circuit and so-called in-flight exhibitions and New Media rights are excluded from the domestic television rights, including but not limited to Internet, WAP, mobile devices, IPTV and other computer-generated sources in ORG's territory.

"International broadcast rights" shall mean the right to distribute, broadcast, exhibit and reproduce the broadcast for exhibition on any form of electronic media including without limitation any form of television medium including but not limited to terrestrial, cable, DBS, satellite, MMDS, SMATV, NVOD, Pay TV, Per-Per-View and radio and all theatric and non-theatric rights (excluding any fixed media such as DVD, CD-ROM, CDi, video) including and not limited to closed circuit and so-called in-flight exhibitions, and New Media rights including but not limited to Internet, WAP, mobile devices, IPTV and other computer-generated sources in all territories except the rights specified under the domestic television rights.

Coverage and graphics from the event

ORG will ensure that the host broadcaster provides a full television production to cover the main TV court for the last three (3) days of the event.

The minimum production standards that apply to the main TV court production are as follows:

High quality HD 16:9, 9 camera production (recommendation below), of which at least one camera is a super slow motion camera.

1. Main Camera (behind the court) (manned hard camera on tripod)
2. Floor Camera (by the net covering one half of the court) (manned hard camera with wheels)
3. Floor Camera (by the net covering the other half of the court) (manned hard camera with wheels)
4. ENG Camera to cover crowd shots, players, coaches, etc. (manned hand-held camera with operator)
5. Reverse (mainly used as slow camera) (manned hard camera on tripod)
6. Baseline camera
7. Net Camera (on the net to cover net play) (POV mini camera)
8. Baseline camera
9. Overhead camera

Credit: BWF

ORG shall provide the continuous live clean signal shall including graphics to "international standard" wholly in the English language and free of any advertising or logos, unless requested by BEC to include a sponsor in such graphics.

Signal distribution

ORG is responsible for the uplink delivery of the international signal to a satellite, as designated by BEC. The signal is to be produced in High Definition 16:9 with two audio tracks (1. English full mix / 2. International sound).

Commercial rights

The commercial rights means the advertising, sponsorship and merchandising rights associated with the event, in other words the right to sell advertising in the arena and the right to sell sponsorship to the event.

This section introduces the main commercial rights that are available at Badminton Europe events. It explains which rights can be exploited by the ORG, and highlights the procedures that will be required by the ORG to gain approval from BEC in the form of sign-off prior to the event. Bidding Associations are requested to detail where there are local restrictions on advertising that can be displayed in and around the venue.

Product categories for the host

The following product categories are reserved for the ORG:

- Transportation
- Hotels
- Telecommunication
- Soft drinks, water
- Food

All other categories are reserved by BEC but can be released to the ORG upon request and approval by BEC if the category is not already unavailable or under negotiation. The Sports Equipment Category is exclusively reserved for BEC and cannot be released.

Naming rights

All naming rights to the event is retained by BEC. This includes sale of the title sponsorship of the event.

Promotional material

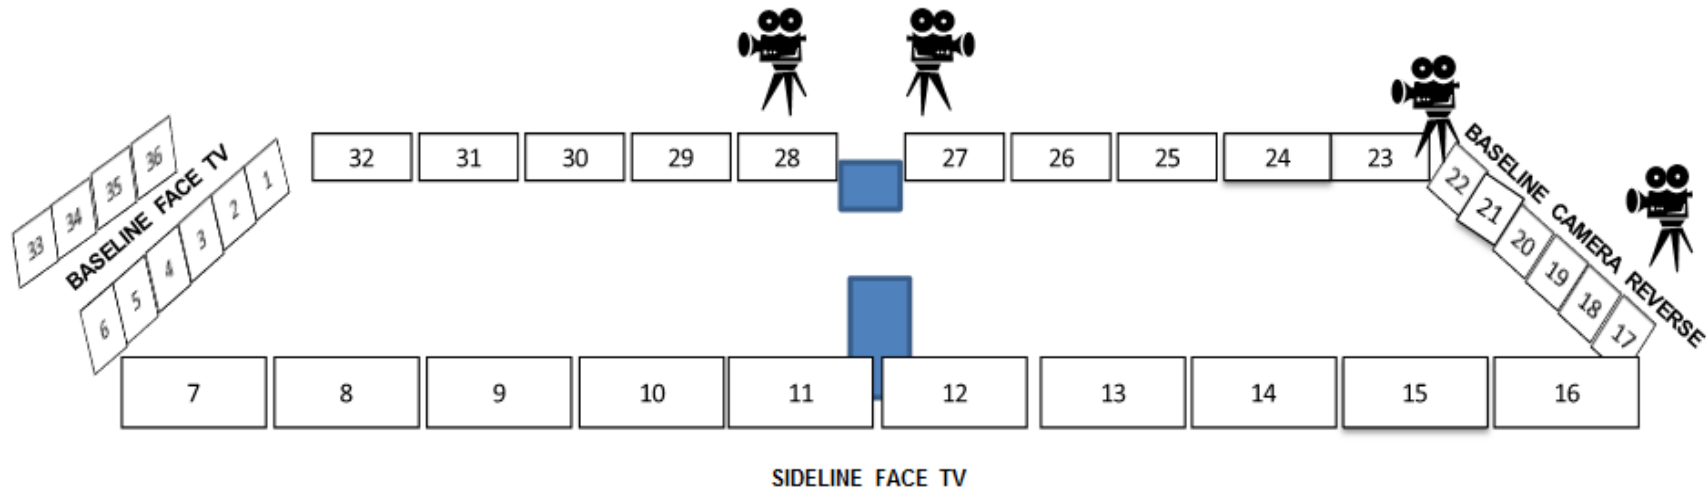

All promotional material produced by the ORG (including mandatory material specified in the events contract) must contain BEC sponsors in the correct position and proportion.

Court side A-board

-Number: A typical setup will allow 36 A-boards around one court – 32 first tier A-boards and 4 second tier A-boards. Normally 36 A-boards will be set up around the TV-court and 26-32 A-boards around the non-TV courts.

-Size: for BEC events the size shall be 160x70 unless otherwise agreed.

The following A-Boards will be available for ORG: Sponsor 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 9, 12, 13, 17, 18, 19, 23, 24, 25, 28, 29, 33 and 34.
 All other A-Boards are retained by BEC.

Official provider status

When providing certain services or products for the event, sponsors may be granted the status of “official provider for the event”. The following text can be used for official providers:

- <company>: Official provider of <service> to the <event title>

Badminton Europe shall approve such appointments.

Other advertising/VIP benefits

Other promotional opportunities, in and around the courtside and arena:

- Hospitality rights – The ORG can set up a hospitality area where hospitality packages can be sold. BEC has access to this area for BEC Board, guests and sponsors.
- 50% of the banner positions in the venue. BEC to approve final commercial setup in terms of numbers and positions.
- 50% of sales booth space can be sold by the ORG. BEC has the right to use the most prominent position for the tournament title sponsor and equipment sponsor. BEC to approve the final set up.
- Non-exclusive Merchandising rights. This is to be coordinated with BEC.

Merchandising rights

Included in this category are all the rights associated with the sale of products in connection with the event. These rights are non-exclusive for the ORG and should be coordinated and agreed with BEC.

Interactive rights

This group of rights concerns all information and data owned by BEC which is presented on the internet in any shape or form. It includes, but is not limited to:

1. Any moving pictures of the event including streaming
2. Live-scoring of matches at BEC events
3. The use of any URL associated with a BEC event
4. The right to give a website "official competition website" status

Badminton Europe retains all rights to the interactive rights, including but not limited to betting, but may grant rights to an ORG as part of the agreement.

Mobile rights

This group concerns all information and data owned by Badminton Europe which is presented on mobile devices in any shape or form. Badminton Europe retains the mobile rights.

4. Bidding

Procedure

The bidding procedure allows Member Associations to submit bids at any time. It will be possible to bid for events for several years/times in a row.

For more information about Badminton Europe's bidding procedures – click here

Interest to stage Badminton Europe events must be submitted in writing.

When making a formal application, the official application form must be used.

Click here to download the official application form

To be considered for hosting an event

Hosting a Badminton Europe event is attractive for several reasons:

First of all it is official recognized European Championships which in itself should give it status with governmental agencies, regional and city councils and sponsors.

Secondly the event will attract a reasonably large number of players, players' relatives, officials, court officials and also spectators. Everyone within European badminton talk about these events - before, during and after as media will cover the events.

Therefore interested organizers could attempt to convince the local community of the financial impact of bringing a Badminton Europe event to the region and possibly enter into partnerships to fund the event.

Criteria and decision-makers

A bid will be accepted by the Badminton Europe Board of Directors provided the bid fulfills the organizational criteria and meet the indicative rights fee for the event. Allocation of the event will be approved by the Board at its earliest convenience.

Click here to see the indicative rights fee

A bid may be accepted by the Badminton Europe Board of Directors provided the bid fulfills the organizational criteria, but does not meet the indicative rights fee for the event. If the bid is accepted by the Badminton Europe Board, a deadline of 3 months will be set for other Member Associations to make a competing bid for the event. Allocation of the event will be decided in the first following Board meeting after the 3 months deadline has expired.

The Badminton Europe Board of Directors reserves the right to allocate an event immediately, even if the indicative rights fee is not met, if the bid is submitted within 12 months from when the event is due to begin.

Further details

All bids or questions about hosting a Badminton Europe event should be addressed to:
